NARRATIVE:

Conry has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. He is considered a high risk offender. His convictions include numerous burglary charges, multiple vehicle thefts, trespassing, multiple drug charges, petty theft, receiving stolen property, trespassing, driving without a license, and failure to appear. Conry has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 28 month term for burglary. Conry was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 20th, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Conry qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the charge of: burglary is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
